

Whatever, Wherever

Band of Horses

What in the world would cause you to question that?
How did I come off? Would lead you to ask

Can I help you along?
Sun in the room
Curtains too soon
The day is coming closer
The dream slipping through me will fade
Inching slowly from slumber

And I love you a lot
Whatever you want
Wherever you are (Wherever you are)
Wherever you are
Wherever you are

Wherever you roam
Let me tell you babe
Not every moment matters
Across marked jots laid down
Look you're growing faster and faster
Heights that I held you up
Times when I couldn't be at home

And I owe you a lot
Whatever you want
Wherever you are (Wherever you are)
Wherever you are
Wherever you are

Wherever you are

Wherever you are
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
Wherever you are

Times when I couldn't be enough
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
