

Lies

Band of Skulls

All that you started will carry on, honey
You throw in a little, a lot of fun, for me.

You're giving it up and moving on cuz you wanna be free.
You're getting so easy to read.

Lies are the truth
that you tell to yourself.
Wise are the fools
who can take what they're dealt.

You say it again just to rub it in, baby.
How can you not have a little fun? Dollface Honey.

Giving it up and you're moving on because you wanna be free.
You're getting so easy to read

Lies are the truth
that you tell to yourself.
Lies are the truth
that you tell to yourself.
Wise are the fools
that can take what they're dealt.
Lies are the truth
that you tell to yourself.

Lies are the truth that you tell to yourself.
Wise are the fools that can take what they're dealt.
