

The Devil Takes Care of His Own

Band of Skulls

If you flip the rug then you'll reveal an ugly seed
But the strength of 10 000 will never weaken me
With just like a razor blade you carve me half and half
Oh I'd better wait to kill the time

Didn't you read it in the detail
That if you're idle then you will fail
Now you wanna know an answer
Well if you dance then you're a dancer

The devil takes care of his own

Do you dare to speak his name there's evil at the root
Cruel or kind it's on your mind, go on and give the dice a roll
Never did believe in saying fortunes are foretold
Easy come and easy they will go

Didn't you read it in the detail
That if you're idle then you will fail
Now you wanna know an answer
Well if you dance then you're a dancer
Didn't you read about it?

The devil takes care of his own

Didn't you read it in the detail?
That if you're idle then you will fail
Now you wanna know an answer
Well if you dance then you're a dancer
Didn't you read it in the detail?
That if you're idle then you will fail
Now you wanna know an answer
Well if you dance then you're a dancer

The devil takes care of his own
