

Alright

Bang Sugar Bang

Fear of falling through a fire in the sky
I reach into the black and find your empty hand
And while you whisper I understand
Delicious kisses
When you say everything's gonna be alright
Baby baby
You're hand in mine
Evil angel seducing fidelity
The whole world's fighting
If they could see the light between our eyes
It's like poetry
It's up to you and I to make sure
Everything's gonna be alright
Baby Baby
You're hand in mine
