

Super Cool

Bang Sugar Bang

Hello man
You came to put us in our place
It makes you feel alive and giving
It makes you feel like you are living
Yeah the master race really needs it's slaves empty minds filled full of praise
Empty eyes but waht you show us
Your great mistake you think you own us

Hey! We're gonna push you down
We're gonna kick you around
We'll make you real underground
'Cuz life is real when you're down

You're everything that's wrong with the world oh yeah you're everything that's wrong with the world oh yeah
Sunset cell phone trustfund repose
Shove your Accounts up your nose
Then vomit all your vanity all over me
You think you're sweet
Well here's how it's gonna go
I'm gonna tell you how it's gonna go
Give you a little something to cry about

Now I'm gonna push you down
We're gonna kick you around
We'll make you real underground
'Cuz life is real when you're down
