

Exactly Who I Am

Bang

My life's been full of sorrow
I've tried to tell myself, maybe tomorrow
Most all the things in life, I ever cared about
It seems I could not have

I've wasted years of precious time
I spent my live trying to find
A way to prove, a way to boast
To all the world, myself the most
Exactly who and what I think I am

I've lived a life of shattered dreams
Been cool and held inside my screams
Now I sit and wonder
Why and where my biggest dream has gone

I've wasted years of precious time
I spent my live trying to find
A way to prove, a way to boast
To all the world, myself the most
Exactly who and what I think I am
