

Love Sonnet

Bang

Time honored dreams, can be reality
Changing to now, what was before
Love is ever, at it's height
Love is Yes, when it's right

When one Loves, your life is still
Your dreams and wishes all come true
Beneath the stars of scented sky's
My arms reach out to hold
The warmth of Love with all it's sighs
A Love that I must hold

Love can be a mounting sound
Expanding till hearts grow full
Love can be a friendship found
Love can turn the fire cool
