

Sad And Lonely

Bang

Couldn't help but see you
A sad and lonely face
Standing in the doorway
To a sad and lonely place
Heard you softly weeping
Sad and lonely cries
You turned and looked right through me
Through sad and lonely eyes

You looked right through me
You looked right through me
Your looking through me
You looked right through me
Didn't plan to know you
Your sad and lonely tale
Hiding in your sorrow
A sad and lonely veil

I have no words to say to you
No soothing lines to give
In sad and lonely times like this
Sometimes it's hard to live
Just a sad and lonely soul like you
A sad and lonely world

You looked right through me
You looked right through me
Your looking through me
You looked right through me

No need to be alone tonight
Don't try to walk away
Sometimes it's hard to push ahead
Start another day

Won't you Take my hand
Hold it tight
Let sad and lonely fade away
Drift into the night
Just a sad and lonely soul like you
A sad and lonely world
