Anna Lee (Sweetheart of the Sun)

Gotta picture of you sittin' In the kitchen without a stitch on Beautiful and natural as can be Later in our glowing hours In the garden painting flowers All the boys they talk to you Wanna do more than talk to you Right now don'tcha wanna be

Anna Lee Anna Lee

Maybe it was love and peace and Living in the sweetest season Wonderland the sweetheart of the sun Now we want to celebrate her All of us who came in later Quiet power, simple grace No man can put you in your place Right now we all want to be
