Complicated Girl

The Bangles

Valerie is beautiful
But she seems a little bit confused
The life you offer her she says
She cannot use

You live in another world She thinks she won't fit in And oh, what about her plans for him She bends to his will

Hey, you better listen
'Cause I'm warning you
Love is never simple
With a complicated girl

You call her on the phone She's got the other guy on hold You see the scene unfold You know it very well

Stay inside your room all day
When she doesn't call you pull the shades
Never seen you act this way
The girl has hit you hard

Why bother making rules you know She will not follow Someday she'll find a way to remedy This lovely mess she's made of you
