

Watching the Sky

The Bangles

Watching the sky
And the moon we both lie under
Miles and miles between us
It makes me wonder
Are you watching the sky
Watching the sky, too.

You fly in circles
Around the dark side of your soul
While I'm flying in this airplane
With no sense of control
The black sky, it wraps around us
Like skin it keeps us whole
And are you watching the sky
Watching the sky, too.

Big hotel island in a small town
They send me flowers for my room
But tonight I'll drink their wine
Tonight I'm gonna have a good time.

Hanging on the telephone
As if it were my friend
Craving some of that sweetness
On the other end
I'll lay under the stars tonight
Instead of sleep, pretend
That you are watching the sky
Watching the sky, too.

(Watching the sky, watching the sky, watching)
(Watching the sky, watching the sky, watching).

Baby, are you watching the sky
Baby, are you watching the sky
Baby, are you watching the sky
Oh, are ya watching the sky?

(Watching the sky, watching the sky, watching)
(Watching the sky, watching the sky, watching)
(Watching the sky, watching the sky, watching)
(Watching the sky, watching the sky, watching).
