

Godless

Banks

And into the darkness
Did you feel I was divine?
'Cause I felt the power when I laid down at your side
And I felt the rhythm, I felt the fever in your mind
I couldn't save you, but at least I say I tried

If your love was ever mine
It would stay with me tonight
I'm praying, praying
You can see it in my eyes
There's a rage that still reminds me
I'm waiting, waiting

You don't believe in one divine
But can't you tell me you believe in mine?
'Cause you've been my god, my god
And when you're gone, I'm godless, I'm godless
You don't believe in love
But can't you say that you've been thinking of us?
'Cause you've been my god, my god
And when you're gone, I'm godless, I'm godless

I swallow my fable that I was not enough
But with my eyes closed, I'm still dancing in your love
And inside, I'm dreaming I'll be alone with you again
And I can still hold you like I held you in the end

You don't believe in one divine
But can't you tell me you believe in mine?
'Cause you've been my god, my god
And when you're gone, I'm godless, I'm godless
You don't believe in love
But can't you say that you've been thinking of us? (Thinking of us)
'Cause you've been my god, my god
And when you're gone, I'm godless, I'm godless

If your love was ever mine
It would stay with me tonight
I'm praying, praying
You can see it in my eyes
There's a reason that still reminds me
I'm waiting (I'm waiting), waiting (Waiting)

You don't believe in one divine
But can't you tell me you believe in mine?
'Cause you've been my god, my god
And when you're gone, I'm godless, I'm godless
You don't believe in love
But can't you say that you've been thinking of us? (Thinking of us)
'Cause you've been my god, my god
And when you're gone, I'm godless, I'm godless
