You Can't Stop My Heart From Breaking

Barbara Fairchild

Your lips are saying goodbye you tell me not to cry
But you can't stop my heart from breaking
I'll play the rules of the game I'll learn to hide the pain
But you can't stop my heart from breaking
You can tell your new love I'll smile and let you go
But what it cost me you both will never know
I'll say I'm happy for you but if you think it's true
What a sad mistake you're making no you can't stop my heart fro m breaking
I'll say I'm happy for you...
