

Never gonna

Barbara Haščáková

Never gonna do what you do, you should know I'll never do
Never gonna do what you do, you should know, It's not only you
Never gonna do what you do, I'll never say I love you
Only if I'm sure boy that you want me too
Hey man, who do you think you are
You act like a boss, you feel like a star
You think that every girl is stupid
You raise your hands, she jumps like a snoop
No, the truth is somewhere else
Here comes the woman, hear what she says
It's enough to be normal
Then you have the chance to win this girl
You, I'll never do what you want
I'll never do what you say
I'll never do what you do
So here I am to teach you something
How to charm girl, how to win her
Here I am to teach you something
How to treat girl, how to love her
Never forget that girl is your sunny, your love, your secret, your darling, your honey
Don't make a macho, if you wanna this girl
Forget yourself, only think about her
