

Back To The Wall

Barclay James Harvest

Stranger at the gate let him in
Stranger at the gate let him in
Stranger at the gate let him in
Won't you let him in

He's been waiting on the other side
He's been waiting on the other side
He's been waiting for the turn of the tide
Won't you let him in

Promises leave you with nothing to show
Destiny leaves you with nowhere to go

Back to the wall
Have you seen the light?
Is your soul worth saving?
Back to the wall
Can you pay the price
Then your life is waiting
Down by the shore
We can help you no more
Standing with our back to the wall

Is your soul worth saving?
Have you seen the light?
Then your life is waiting
Can you pay the price?
