

Heartbeat

Barcode Brothers

In the silence of loneliness, in the picture on the wall.
Just like what darkness brings, when the rain begins to fall,
I can try to find myself in the roof that you can see,
That dreams will bring me back, in your arms I wish to be
I feel your heartbeat now, I hear your voice ride up receive,
In the night I will fight thru the shining stars and bring you
back to me
I feel your heartbeat now

Now and than I feel to rest? cause my open eyes will see Every place around the world you will find a piece of me.
In my sleep, I weak up very easy do you hear my call
I will cry to make you hurry, never let me fall.
I feel your heartbeat now, I hear your voice ride up receive,
back to me
I feel your heartbeat now
