I'm sending you an SMS
I'm sending you an S-S-MS
I've got the phone, I wanna call you
I'm alone, I've got you under my skin
Is there some way I can win?
Is there some way, for me to say
I think about you everyday

What can I do?
I feel so blue
I've gotta get this message to you
I'm sending you an SMS
I'm sending you an S-S-MS
I'm feeling that it would be the best
To send you an S-S-MS

With every bleep
My heart it crumbles
I cannot sleep
I hear your voice in my mind
You've got my heart on the line
Is there some way, for me to say
I think about you everyday

What can I do?
I feel so blue
I've gotta get this message to you
I'm sending you an SMS
I'm sending you an S-S-MS
I'm feeling that it would be the best
To send you an S-S-MS
I'm sending you an SMS

I'm sending you an S-S-MS
I'm feeling that it would be the best
To send you an S-S-MS
It's not too late, communicate

Just grab the bate and trust in fate
What can I do, I feel so blue
I've gotta get that message to you

S-S-SMS-SMS-SMS

I'm sending you an SMS
I'm sending you an S-S-MS
I'm feeling that it would be the best

To send you an S-S-MS
I'm sending you an SMS
I'm sending you an S-S-MS

I'm feeling that it would be the best
To send you an S-S-MS
I'm sending you an S-M-S
