No Ground

I try to do what's wrong Try to fuck it all up I try hard to unbehave And I, I move 'round beyond what's same

I'm jumping overboard
Try to fly without wings
And I always miss the call
But I - I don't seem to care at all

There's no ground Float or drown Filthy few No help is around There's no ground There's no ground

Far out Groping 'round Just keep on pushing it No shit
