

The Barcode

Barcode

Do take another, you're thirsty, to loosen you up
Go drown what's left of your brain
Don't talk that itchy bitchy jive, don't try to stop
Just go completely insane

Do not ignore the code at the bar, wherever you are
THE BARCODE
You will stay put, stay right where you are, you will obey!
THE BARCODE
Don't underestimate the brew, slide into
THE BARCODE
You're not alone, we're right at the spot, we are BARCODE

We say
CRASH THE GATE
Join the party come cruise away
You are invited to beerzerk today
