Peterborough and the Kawarthas

Barenaked Ladies

Peterborough and the Kawarthas (Creeggan) I left you in the rain Peterborough and the Kawarthas Your reflection in the pane Peterborough and the Kawarthas

Apples, pears, prunes and plums His favourite food, I told his mom Wait for him at the end of the slide When he climbs the stairs, stay by his side

I heard you got some rain Peterborough and the Kawarthas Looks like we're in for the same Peterborough and the Kawarthas

I'm going early, won't wave goodbye Tell him I love him; look him in the eye I've learned how to mourn; I've learned how to miss Let me disappear with this kiss

Tuesday: A mix of sun and cloud with a 40% chance of showers ea rly in the morning; then sunny. Winds West 20 kilometers per hour, gusting to 40. High of 22. U V index 50; moderate.

Bird, book, and basketball Squirrel, dog, and learning how to crawl I found my heart when he came Let my leaving leave like rain

I watched you from the train Peterborough and the Kawarthas When I come back I'll see you again Peterborough and the Kawarthas

I listen for you every morning I listen for you every morning I listen for you every morning I listen for you every morning
