

What A Letdown

Barenaked Ladies

Even if I let this settle, it'll lead to a little fight
Even when I get to meddlin' I need to remain polite
I could cut across this field but it hits pretty close to home
Maybe if I jiggle it a little it'll open up on its own

Oh well, what a let down
Oh well, what a let down

Never has a stranger had a better taste of another town
Just time for a cowboy breakfast, that's a leak and a look around
Looks like the land of plenty, there will be plenty there to do
That might've been funny at 20, but I just turned 32

Oh well, what a let down
Oh well, what a let down
Oh well, what a let down
Oh well, what a let down

Let down your guard
Moving forward
Finally four words
What a let down
What a let down

Even if I let this settle, it'll lead to a little fight
Even when I get to meddlin' I need to remember to remain polite
I could cut across this field but it hits pretty close to home
Maybe if I jiggle it a little it'll open up on its own

Oh well, what a let down
Oh well, what a let down
Oh well, what a let down
Oh well, what a let down

What a let down
Oh well, what a let down
Oh well, what a let down
What a let down
