

Don't Follow Me-terrible Sunrise

Bargain Music

The spit in my eyes and the blood on my shoes
Still don't tell me much of what I was trying to prove
I am too lazy to really get angry
And you're too sugar sweet to come along

So don't follow me
Don't follow me
Don't follow me
Don't follow me
I am lost

Whining quietly
While at 10th and Bay
Wondering why you ain't got no where to stay
You are too lazy to really get angry
If you don't know where you are you might be lost

So don't follow me
Don't follow me
Don't follow me
Don't follow me
I am lost

La La La, La La La, La La La, La La La

Don't follow me
Don't follow me
Don't follow me
Don't follow me
I am lost

If you talk any faster with food in your teeth
I swear to God I'm going to call the police
The sunrise ain't pretty when you ain't been to bed
Tomorrow is today instead
And I know where you want to go
The devil has crawled inside your nose
I've come with you as far as I can go
Completely out of control

There's another mother fucker knocking on your door
For four drunk girls who want to score
There's a dangerous dollar rolling up in your hand
While your newlywed waits in bed
And I know where you want to go
The devil has crawled inside your nose
I've come with you as far as I can go
Completely out of control
