

Looking At The Rain

Bargain Music

Came round the corner
About once or twice
I don't know but it's been nice
I ain't got no money
I can't buy a damn thing
But I'm alive
Even though I'm making chili
Sitting outside of Scotties
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain

I gotta shirt that costs a dollar twenty one
I know I'm the best dressed man alive
I put it on and head down to the local dive
To put the icing on an extraordinary ride
When I'm done I leave all happy and insane
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain

I'm a worthless no good bag of trouble
I get all up in your head
Gotta real shot babe to burst your bubble
This is trouble distribution and I'm giving you your share
Won't tell you nothing cause that's my
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain

Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain
I'm looking at the rain
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain
Looking at the rain

It dipped into my lungs
It got me sprung
I can't wait
One more time I'm numb
Off the shit
And maybe mic spit
The shit at the end of the beat I love it
Baragain music
Choose it

OK here's one last song about sleeping
