

Father Of Lies

Barnabas

A lot of people think i'm a cute little guy
With pointy horns and a cute little tail
Well, that's fine with me, 'cause i get my work done
If people don't believe that i'm real

I'm lucifer
The father of lies
Just call me satan; don't act so surprised
I'm the prince of darkness; i'm coming after you
'Cause i want your soul, and to hell with you

Some people actually worship my name
They think that i'm really cool
They even believe that i care for them
Some people are such little fools

I know i haven't got too much time
Pretty soon we're all gonna burn
I'd really love to take you along
When we get there you're gonna learn
