

Little Foxes

Barnabas

I can still hear momma say
"Win or lose, it's how you play"
Aw mom, no harm in a little sin
That's how it's done today (Do it!)

Every evening after school
A couple joints, a couple brews
No harm done in a little fun
So don't tell me what to do

Tell me children, have you heard
The devil's golden rule
A simple line used all the time
Spit on me, I'll spit on you

Little foxes destroy the vine
Satan laughs: "Your ASS is MINE"
"Kiss it goodbye, kiss it goodbye, kiss it GOODBYE"

Neatly disguised, you seek to have them all
In prideful hate, you bleed them white
They laugh us off, but then to you they crawl
You shoot them up with cheap delights

Come on baby, loosen up
Let the fun begin
Never mind what momma said
To hell with discipline

Little by little, drop by drop
You'll hardly feel a thing
Until you stand before the Throne
To plead your case in vain

Little foxes spoil the vine
