A Face In The Dark

Barren Cross

L.A.'s the place of dreams
Or so it seems
Is there a place you're runnin' to
Don't like it where you are
Life is oh so hard
You feel like runnin' somewhere new

The things that wait for you Isn't what you want Who you think you'll be Is not who you'll become

A face a face In the dark A face a face In the dark

So when you left your home You didn't leave a note Were things there that bad It's lonely running blind You're running out of time My friend you look so sad

The things that wait for you Isn't what you want Who you think you'll be Is not who you'll become

The things that wait for you Isn't what you want Who you think you'll be Is not who you'll become
