

Midnight Son

Barren Cross

I wasn't feelin' to well - a little hotter than hell
And it was right about the midnight hour
Saw a fisherman - he put his catch in my hand
My soul was shaken just like lightning and thunder
I saw a look in his eyes. It burned a hole in my mind
The Son was rising, it was midnight baby
I felt a surge in me, down to my knees, shakin' me

All night, my heart was really crying I've been on my own Midnight, broken love had found me, now I'm goin home

Midnight Son - you're the light that surrounds me alone in the dark
