

What it Means

Barry Adamson

I feel good. I feel bad. Ain't it sad
One day it's all going to end
Up in flames. Without a shame Cos I'm here. To change the total course of the world (yeah yeah)
And that's what I'm singing (yeah yeah)

Heat it up. Cool it down Spread it around under the cold shadow of love. I have found (I have found)
What it means (what it means). To believe (to believe)
And leave the world to the remains Of the day (of the day). What I say (what I say). Ain't so clear (ain't so clear)
To souls who die when the decline
Can't be seen (can't be seen). They're getting mean (they're getting mean)
Now we're going (now we're going)
To change the total course

Here am I.
Love just spilled on what comes naturally.
Buy and bye
Love just spills and I don't mean rationally

What it means. Is you're dead
One to the head. If you don't know what is behind. This disguise.
It's no surprise. When you think About your own every step of the way

The energy pirates will get you
They'll chew on your bones for breakfast
They'll convince you that baby you're desperate They'll spit on your mound and keep pounding and pounding and

All the time. Love just comes and I don't mean casually. Wait a while Love will come and fuck that tragedy

(Cancel that shrink we're travelling up to the sky minds on the blink
Or maybe the lies. Out of time)

I have found. What it means. To believe That what is all going to end
Up in flames. Is your heart
So let it speak. And change the total course of the world
