Now I like the way you move Anyway that you make it work And you offer something new And the doorway is open for me

Now a man needs a woman

And I know that for me is true

And life, we got too much reality

There's gotta be other things to do

Me electrify you Simply mystify you Very strange but nice

Now somebody wrong
And somebody right
And somebody knows it's neither one thing or the other

It's a fine line between taking and giving
It's a fine line

It's fine line between dancing and making love
It's a fine line

I can see the possibility Anyway that you wanna be We all got secret emotions Anytime after the midnight hour

Now love, don't get short on the action Anyway you got the energy My heart is a part of the plans you made You're the star of my sexual fantasy

Me electrify you Simply mystify you Hope you stay all night

I'll have you for dinner or breakfast in bed

Either way I get you for the worse or for the better

It's a fine line
between taking and giving
It's a fine line

It's a fine line
between dancing and making love
It's a fine line

It's wild, it's weird, it's what we think about This ain't no strip, club, shame on you 'cause you know somebody that got a bead on what you need Don't sacrifice your love You analyze, don't minimize what only you can rise above

Now, I know that, don't you think
I know you're watching me
You got no claim to make Well, that's no excuse
And know the truth
You got brain drain, long as there's a game to play
Sad, but there's only one fool to blame

It's a fine line, fine line

You don't think my love should tie you down I say love can turn your groove around Watch me please you Watch me play your game Someday love will make your water flow

It's a fine line, fine line
