

I Am Your Driver

Barry Gibb

In the history of humans I have found no stranger to the strange.
It's the dream of your choice that fate could not change.

It's a mystery that is the universe,
ten times the speed of sound.
Don't be concerned, I will take care of you.
Take you from Mercury to Mars.
Just state what you need.
And Jane will be there for you.
We're on a journey to the stars.

Ah. We never stop short of our destination,
eyeballing the constellation.

I am your driver and I'm proud to say
in a word
your flight will be smooth.

I am your driver, it's your lucky day.
We be gone.
Together we move, oh,
together we move.

Apart from black holes, body rolls, ready for the danger.
I'll get you home again.
We got a green light, hang on tight.
You can rearrange your bags in the aisle.
The airline with a smile.

We never stop short of our destination,
eyeballing the constellation.

I am your driver and my speed is great.
I'm a stone,
born to be smooth.

I am your driver, I take you away.
We be gone.
Together we move, oh,
how can we lose.

All aboard the 'Merry Widow' I have found
our ship can race the wind, chase it and win
for she was a pioneer
like others before,
she lead the line.

And there's been good times, some were bad.
Some were just appalling.
It's all in the scheme of things, I suppose.

It all comes down to what is real or what your dream is.
One show of shows.
Just follow your nose.

You'll never stop short of your destination,
eyeballing the constellation.

I am your driver and I'm proud to say
in a word your flight will be smooth.
I am your driver, it's your lucky day.
We be gone.
Together we move,
together we move.
