

Put a Quarter in the Jukebox

Barry Manilow

She said she'd always love me
She said she'd never leave me
Then I wake up this mornin'
She's gone without warnin'

I know what you've been through, pal
My woman left me too, pal
I'm drinkin' to what it used to be Here's a toast the drinks to me

What this joint needs is some music, someone...
Put a quarter in the jukebox and we'll both forget about her make the music louder someone...
Put a quarter in the jukebox
And we'll sing our cares away
Tomorrow is another day

Another round on me, pal
I feel the same you see, pal
It's hard to face this endless day
I've gotta drink the hurt away

Hey, this joint needs some more music
someone...

It feels just like a dream
We were such a winning team
Oh I'm sure it's true that love is blind
Cause leavin' never crossed my mind

What'll I do with the nights now that she's gone

What'll I do when the nights go on and on someone
