

Girl It's True, Yes I'll Always Love You

Barry White

There's that look again
You know what I'm talking about
That insecure that unsure that, that wondering, look.
It's all in your eyes baby
You're sitting there and you're wondering
Does he really love me as much as he says he does?
Does he really need me and want me as much as he says he does?
Baby I can't
Sit around you twenty four hours a day telling you baby I love you, I need you and I want you
But I feel like right now right at this moment
I should try to clear and make you feel reassured about me, huh!
Woman are sensitive
Very sensitive
Baby let me tell you something you know
Just as hard as a woman can love a man
A man can love his woman
And baby believe me
I do love you
Everything I have is you

And I don't like to see you look this way
I don't like to see you feel this way
I don't
I want you to be together
and know and feel and be sure at all times
We're going to make it baby, huh!
You better believe me
The world is ours, no doubt in my heart or my mind,
You and me babe, huh!
Just you, and me, I know, you know why?

Because, if I thought, I would lose you,
I couldn't feel the way that I do
In you I found, my world of ecstasy
Honey you are, honey you're all I need.
You and me together, we were meant to be, yeah.

Girl its true, yeah, girl I'll always love you, I do, yes I'll always love you, its true.
Yes I'll always love you, its true, girl, yes I'll always love you,

With every step I make and every breath I take, you and me baby, you and me.
Girl I know, we're going make it,
Cause what we feel is real
And we don't have to fake it
I'm giving you, everything I've got
And truly I, I don't want to ever stop.
You and me together, girl we were meant to be.

Yes its true, yeah, Girl I'll always love you, I do, girl I'll always love, its true.
It's true, yeah, yes I'll always love you, I do, yes I'll always love, its true.
oh yeah, oh yeah.
