

Stay Strong

Bars and Melody

Oh Yeah
Whoaah

This is girl I know, she feels unknown
Just wanna have attention, cries on her own
Got nobody to go to, she feels so scared
Doesn't wanna go to school, cries in the bed
She got a couple friends and think she's ok
Inside the pain haunts her day by day
She's supposed to given up, she doesn't see the point
She just wants happiness for the most she disappoint
She blames herself, it drives her mad
For every single little trouble that she's ever had
The pain she edures, you can see it through her shirt
Bearing the scars, in the side there's burns.

No more pain,
No more tears,
There's no need to cry no more,
There's nothing left to fear,
No more pain,
No more tears,
You don't need to lie no more,
Cause now you know we're here

She hides herself no one hears her cries,
If only you can see the world through her eyes,
All she wanted is one little friend,
To stick by her to the very end,
She didn't ask for life in fact nothing at all
She was still hit on the ground and called a fool
She didn't want a fight, she just wanted some love
When she was lonely just one hug
And to feel like she was accepted
Instead to push her on the ground, left out and rejected
You gotta stay strong, it will last forever
You would never be alone we'd do this together

No more pain,
No more tears,
There's no need to cry no more,
No more pain,
No more tears,
You don't need to lie no more,
Cause now you know we're here

She can't take it no more, she said it's enough
She's been strong for so long but she didn't get tough
Scared to let it go, no one seems to care
Scared to carry on cause there's no one there
Destroyed girl, bearing the scars
Fighting the fears, behind spiritual bars
One day this girl I saw her face
She messed with a smile (I can tell it was fake)
She broke down in tears, said I saved her life
Crying she said Can I be your wife

I answered Hey there girl tell me what is wrong
She told me everything, so I dedicate this song

No more pain, (don't cry)
No more tears,
(no more tears runnin down your face)
There's no need to cry no more,
(No more pain)No more pain,
No more tears,
You don't need to lie no more,
Cause now you know we're here.
Oooh
No More
