

In the Night

Basia Bulat

All the hopes that you've been holding onto for so long And the fires you've been chasing down now are all gone I can tell you are a long way from the one you love Ohh the night it takes so long to fall ohh in the night, ohh in the night, ohh in the night I will hide away my fortunate son hes soon to fall but let him go but i'll always know my life is not the only one,

no no..

I will hide away my fortunate son
hes soon to fall but let him go
but i'll always know my life is not the only one,
no no

Storm and shadows fall to pieces to my heart like a comet carry so that I can soar like and eagle words that ya sing so carry on your own Ohhhhhhhhhhh no

All my life's been wandering in the fire on the wind I made its cold enough to hold me now and a heart like yours should never have to hold it now but sometimes it takes the night to fall

I will hide away my fortunate son
hes soon to fall but let him go
but i'll always know my life is not the only one,
no no
