One day, while in the south of France, My good friend said I should hug an olive tree, She claimed that dreams come true when you do, but Can a plant be in any way that beneficial to me?

Though I'm a famous skeptic, feet on the ground,
This time I wanted this to be true
Now picture this
A silly polish girl in nice
Embracing trees
Wishing for you

Hug an olive tree
I take it things are looking good
Still--could be better,
There's always something to improve
And so you should
Hug an olive tree
I take it things are looking good
Still, could be better,
There's always something to improve
Oh yes we should

So when you're in the south of France And you've got dreams, Look for some magic gardens with olive trees

Though I'm a famous skeptic, feet on the ground,
This time I wanted this to be true...

Some olive branch must have heard my desperate heart
'cause I wear the crown (the olive crown,
I wear the olive crown)

And so do you