

The Prayer Of A Happy Housewife

Basia

When I look around it makes me wonder
Am I worthy of the most amazing life that I've Been given
Did not care before but I'm older
I see things in a different light
My grateful thoughts I raise to heaven

Thank you for letting me dream and hope
Thank you for this man who's always been true
And I do know that I'm lucky to be this strong

'Cause some of us are weak
If they only knew
Oh if they knew

When I walk the streets it makes me wonder
Am I deserving of the most amazing home
That I've been given
All the cardboard boxes are much colder
And when I watch our children grow
My grateful thoughts I raise to heaven

Guide me and help me to carry on
I don't have to ask 'cause you've always seen
Me through
I am eternally thankful for what I have
And if anything goes wrong
Then I still have you
I still have you
