Shattered Me

Bass Drum of Death

You and me perplexed and out of sleep i'm vexed and move into my own i dunno it's forced right out of me i've thought that you might lose control and if i get shut down i don't know where i'd rather be for me and if i get let down no one will ever let me be you and me collecting shattered dreams now i'm not sure of what i've known i suppose it's not what's meant to be then take my lips and kiss my bones and if i get shut down i don't know where i'd rather be for me i don't know what you want and if i did i'd try to stay.
