

Way Out

Bass Drum of Death

And if i flipped out on my own whatever would i want for you to say on 18 years now all alone i'm feeling smaller almost everyday wherever i should go i'm never coming home
i found my way out
however i can float
i'm never going home
i've gotta stop and check my tone everyone hears just what they wanna hear and now i'm fucked up in my zone pitiful fools won't make it and it's clear (YOU'LL NEVER BE) SO WRONG
insane leather fear i believe it's near snakes won't cross the road do just as you're told everyone is everyone i know don't get cracked it's best to take it slow
withering away too drunk to dream i'll stay down I-5 i speed too rich to be in need.
