

Deep Sea Diver

Bat for Lashes

You came running out of the dark
With the tears in your eyes
This time I'm not afraid
'Cause my heart's ablaze

Baby, throw your head back
Let your hair down
Oooooooh

Baby, let your hair down
It's time to get enchanted
You're a deep sea diver
Tides are turning in your favour

You came running out of the dark
With the tears in your eyes
And the mouth on the moon swore a new
Religion being born

Baby, let your head fall back
Love like you never
Tasted such a good thing on your tongue
Baby, let your scream come
Baby, let your scream come

Said you'd been taken over
By a deeper and unknown
You'd been changed
What's grown up around you
Is a different skin
You thought I wouldn't know your face

Baby, if you can't see out
Know that I can hear you shout
And darling if you can't see out
You know that I can hear you shout

Hooooohh
