

Sleepless

Baths

Funny what a weird and easy heart I had Before you took it away, oh
It returned on its own
A calloused, fettered waste
Now it lays awake like vapor
don't fade from the swamp

Cool your loveless wallowing
Begone
Leave me be
Leave me be
As miserable and salty as the sea

Hey
C-c'mon back
G-Good God, I was good enough
Oh, where are you?

Hey
Come back!
God damn it, I was good enough
I'm good enough
But I can't do this anymore, oh

Oh, where are you?
