

The Nothing

Baths

All of the nothing that I do
No fucking worldview and stay in for weeks, it seems like

This listlessness imbues
my body with dead hues
And I need to get out and find the love of my life

Oh, things can get so good and I know that they could
I need to get out
and find the love of my life

All of the nothing that I do
What one could I go through Sick of kissing my hands all hours of the night

and I know that they could
I need to get out
and find the love of my life
