

Demon Party

Batmobile

Lying in my bed in the middle of the night
Heard all kind of noises that filled me up with fright
Huffin' and puffin' whispers in my ear
I want to run, run away but I'm paralyzed with fear

It was a demon party it was a ghost night feast
I heard all kind of noises and a thousand rare beasts
They walked outside the curtains walked upon the roof
They made the lightbulbs shake all night they keep me awake
Huffin' and puffin' whispers in my ear
I want to run, run away but I'm paralyzed with fear

Lying in my bed in the middle of the night
Heard all kind of noises that filled me up with fright
Huffin' and puffin' whispers in my ear
I want to run, run away but I'm paralyzed with fear
