

Familiar Hell

Battle Beast

I breathe of heaven and not the ground
Maybe now I'm just lost and found
Living in false fantasy
Said from remove less reality

I'm stranded in this paradise
So tell me what to sacrifice
To get out of this tragedy
I'll offer sanity

It's familiar hell
That of an unknown heaven
Only one voice behind every choice
Living under a spell 24 / 7
Lost in confusion in noise and Illusion
I wanna know if it's said at all
Ohhhh ohhhhhhhhhh

I saw the light in your hollow soul
Tryna be complete and whole
I'm dreaming like a mad man about things I don't understand

I'm stranded in this paradise
So tell me what to sacrifice
To get out of this tragedy
I'll offer sanity
It's familiar hell
That of an unknown heaven
Only one voice behind every choice
Living under a spell 24 / 7
Turn the lights on tonight

It's familiar hell
That of an unknown heaven
Living under a spell 24 / 7
It's familiar hell
That of an unknown heaven

Hahahaha
Listen to me
What if we all believe that we could choose our reality?
What if the truth we know is just a prophet of a fantasy?
If we view the world with closed eyes and only look after ourselves
It's easy to swallow all the truths as lies
And who the fuck is going to clean up the mess
So I ask you one more time

It's familiar hell
That of an unknown heaven
Only one voice behind every choice
Living under a spell 24 / 7
Ohhhhhh ohhhhhh
It's familiar hell
That of an unknown heaven
Only one voice behind every choice
Living under a spell 24 / 7
Turn the lights on tonight
