I don't want you to feel
I don't want you to hear
I don't want you to know my name
I don't want you to feel
I don't want you to see
I don't want you to know my name
I don't want you to feel my shame
```

The aftermath of the battle
Still haunting in my dreams
Freed but still under veil of sleep
The Iron of the Flaming Star
The gloom with a naked blade
Slew him with pain blinding my eyes

The deep dark fate follows my path The curse spoken out times ago

Hide behind these stains Grief burdens my name I am the Bloodstained I am the kin of Ill-fate

The lands of wandering and despair Struggling on and on The day failed, the dark storm rose Naked blade flashing in the night
