

Black Hordes, Arise!

Battlerage

Blessed into death,
armies of the damned
Rise to join my ranks
and bring the world the end

Master of decay,
lord of all the dead My words resound into your hollow empty heads

BLACK HORDES, ARISE!

My will commands your bones,
your soul belongs to me
March quietly through the dark, prepare to fight and kill

Black servants of the night,
lusting blood to spill
Enemies of light,
ghastly shapes of sin

BLACK HORDES, ARISE!

Leave your graves
and join me in the night We'll march against the living, we'll terrorize the light In darkness their souls we'll tear apart
And they, who pass away,
will join us in our ranks

Terror, fear, horror,
the curse of the undead Run to save your life or fight and lose your head Vengeance from beyond, my legions do my will Soon you'll join my ranks of the darkest bloody steel

Blessed into death,
armies of the damned
Rise to join my ranks

Black servants of the night,
Enemies of light,
ghastly shapes of sin

BLACK HORDES, ARISE!
