Dreams on Steel

Battleroar

Dreams on Steel, forged forever Poems on blades, we will remember

Twilight fades, moon rays whisper Silver tears on a dragon's wing

Gates of night, free thy secrets Spectral shades, glow in silent flight

Skies of grey, misty mountains Long lost days, relive by your rhyme

Fallen stars, rise in glory When we'll stand by the lords of light

One last hail and we'll be gone One last song, lies upon the sword
