

Let's Go (A Huggin' And A Kissin' In The Moonlight)

Bay City Rollers

Let's go, let's go
Let's go, huggin' and a kissin' in the moonlight
I know, you and I together make it so right
Let's go, girl I told your mumma and it's alright
We'll be alone, baby I'll walk you home in the moonlight

Hey you got the key to my heart, any time you wanna use it
I'll be waitin' for ya, girl cause I adore you so
You know
Everybody wants to know, what my life was like before you
I don't think about it, I just want to shout it out
Baby I love you

Let's go, let's go
Let's go, huggin' and a kissin' in the moonlight
I know, you and I together make it so right
Let's go, girl I told your mumma and it's alright
We'll be alone, baby I'll walk you home in the moonlight

Hold me in the palm of your hand, twist me round your little finger
Do this when you wanna, baby I'm a gonner for you
And it's true

Let's go, let's go
Let's go, huggin' and a kissin' in the moonlight
I know, you and I together make it so right
Let's go, girl I told your mumma and it's alright
We'll be alone, baby I'll walk you home in the moonlight

Let's go; Let's go
Let's go, huggin' and a kissin' in the moonlight
I know, you and I together make it so right
Let's go, girl I told your mumma and it's alright
We'll be alone, baby I'll walk you home in the moonlight

Let's go, a huggin' and a kissin' in the moonlight
I know, you and I together make it so right
