

My Teenage Heart

Bay City Rollers

Why must my teenage heart keep sharing you
Why must my teenage heart feel blue
And if I spend my whole life sharing you
My teenage love will still be true
But when you're by his side
My foolish pride won't let my feelings through Cos you're breaking my teenage heart in two
I know one day I won't be sharing you
I know some day I'll be with you
Til then my teenage heart will wait for you
My teenage love will still be true
So if you need a loving hand to hold
I'll wait here just for you
Cos you're breaking my teenage heart in two, yes you are You're breaking my teenage heart in two
