

Write A Letter

Bay City Rollers

I wanna write a letter i tried to make a call uh uh just to see how you're feelin' if you're missin' me at all i wanna cry yeah and I gotta let you go but there's on who needs to see you and i've really gotta know chorus girl, what i mean is what i say all the cheatin' that i did was in your head girl, why did you believe those lies and can't you see we're wasting all this time i hope you need me but you don't want to know understand this love i have inside (just has no place to go) I'm trying to face it this pain just seems to grow and maybe try and see it my way are we still too young to know repeat chorus
my love, what i mean is what i say i just gotta let you go my love, i tried to tell i gotta let you know my love, but you don't want to know
