

Always Know Where You Are

BBMak

It's good to see the sun
And feel this place
This place I never thought would feel like home
Now I'm forever far away, and I
I always thought I'd end up here alone

And somehow
The world has changed
And I've come home
To give you back the things they took from you

And I feel you now
I'm not alone
I'll always know where you are
And when I see myself
I'll always know where you are
Where you are

And I've found something
That was always there
Sometimes it's gotta hurt before you feel
But now I'm strong

And I won't kneel
Except to thank who's watching over me
(except to thank who's watching over me)

And somehow
I feel so strong
And I've begun
To be the one I never thought I'd be

And I feel you now
I'm not alone
I'll always know where you are
And when I see myself
I'll always know where you are
Where you are

Now
It's all so clear
And I believe
That everything's been opened up to me

And I feel you now
I'm not alone
I always know
I'll always know where you are

And when I see myself
I'll always know where you are
And when I feel the sun
I'll always know where you are

And when I see myself
